120 Years of Serving Christ

Congratulations!

It's that time of year when all the hard work of all the students really pays off. Graduation day! It is a time of great reward for the years of dedicated study and achieving passing grades in so many subjects. I want to offer my congratulations to all the students who are graduating this year. Those who are going from Elementary School to Middle School, from Middle School to High School, from High School to College and from College to Careers. You have earned a great deal and I do not want you to go unnoticed!

I also want to offer my congratulations to all the parents, spouses and family members of this year's graduates. I have learned that this achievement is seldom a solo achievement. Each graduate made it because there were so many others who offered inspiration and support throughout the years. Your support was needed and you deserve a great deal of congratulations as well. I know because our family has been involved in my son Vincent's graduation. It took all our support, patience and continued coaching and cheerleading to get him through. There were so many Teachers, Counselors and Associates that helped Vincent get to this important time in his life. I am sure each of you graduates had some key people help you along the way!

My prayer for all of you is that you celebrate this great time in your life and enjoy your success! Once you have celebrated keep moving ahead and strive to achieve success in the next level of your education or your new career! May I challenge you to keep Christ Jesus in your life and never

2009 Camp Wyoming Summer Camps

The theme for 2009 is "Breakthrough" where campers will learn how people from the Bible had a transforming experience during their encounter with Jesus. This experience changed their way of seeing God, themselves, and the world around them. As Jesus journeyed through villages, along lakesides, and down dusty roads, his life intersected with the lives of a variety of people who had experienced oppression, pain, neglect, or sickness. In story after story, Jesus tears down walls of prejudice, provides loving attention to the forgotten, and heals the sick. Campers will read these stories and learn how each encounter resulted in a Breakthrough; a chance to move beyond the present situation into a life-changing experience with the healing grace and love of God.

Youth from Kindergarten to Seniors in high school are invited to join other youth from all over at camp this summer. There are two ways to register. Fill out the form in the back of the 2009 Camp Wyoming brochure (available at the church) or go online at www.campwyoming.net.

Finally, Camp Wyoming runs an Open House in the Spring so families can visit and see the facilities, meet the staff, and participate in numerous traditional summer camp activities. The date and time for this year's Open House is April 18th from 10 AM to 2 PM.

In service to Christ,

Camp Wyoming Staff

Presbyterian Theology—Part I

We continue learning more about what it is to be Presbyterian with a series on Presbyterian Theology talking about Faith, Jesus, the Holy Spirit, The Bible, and finally Sin and Salvation.

Terry

Theology

Some of the principles articulated by John Calvin remain at the core of Presbyterian beliefs. Among these are the sovereignty of God, the authority of the scripture, justification by grace through faith and the priesthood of all believers. What they mean is that God is the supreme authority throughout the universe. Our knowledge of God and God's purpose for humanity comes from the Bible, particularly what is revealed in the New Testament through the life of Jesus Christ. Our salvation (justification) through Jesus is God's generous gift to us and not the result of our own accomplishments. It is everyone's job - ministers and lay people alike - to share this Good News with the whole world. That is also why the Presbyterian church is governed at all levels by a combination of clergy and laity, men and women alike.

Points of Interest: Presbyterians confess their beliefs through statements that have been adopted over the years and are contained in the Book of Confessions. These statements reflect our understanding of God and what God expects of us at different times in history, but all are faithful to the fundamental beliefs described above. Even though we share these common beliefs, Presbyterians understand that God alone is lord of the conscience, and it is up to each individual to understand what these principles mean in his or her life.

The Brief Statement of Faith

Preface

In 1983 the two largest Presbyterian churches in the United States reunited. The "Plan for Reunion" called for the preparation of a brief statement of the Reformed faith for possible inclusion in the Book of Confessions. This statement is therefore not intended to stand alone, apart from the other confessions of our church. It does not pretend to be a complete list of all our beliefs, nor does it explain any of them in detail. It is designed to be confessed by the whole congregation in the setting of public worship, and it may also serve pastors and teachers as an aid to Christian instruction. It celebrates our rediscovery that for all our undoubted diversity, we are bound together by a common faith and a common task.

The faith we confess unites us with the one, universal church. The most important beliefs of Presbyterians are those we share with other Christians, and especially with other evangelical Christians who look to the Protestant Reformation as a renewal of the gospel of Jesus Christ. Diversity remains. But we are thankful that in our time the many churches are learning to accept, and even to affirm, diversity without divisiveness, since the whole counsel of God is more than the wisdom of any individual or any one tradition. The Spirit of Truth gives new light to the churches when they are willing to become pupils together of the Word of God. This statement therefore intends to confess the catholic faith.

We are convinced that to the Reformed churches a distinctive vision of the catholic faith has been entrusted for the good of the whole church. Accordingly, "A Brief Statement of Faith" includes the major themes of the Reformed tradition (such as those mentioned in the Book of Order, Form of Government, Chapter 2), without claiming them as our private possession, just as we ourselves hope to learn and to share the wisdom and insight given to traditions other than our own. And as a confession that seeks to be both catholic and Reformed, the statement (following the apostle's blessing in 2 Cor. 13:14) is a trinitarian confession in which the grace of Jesus Christ has first place as the foundation of our knowledge of God's sovereign love and our life together in the Holy Spirit.

No confession of faith looks merely to the past; every confession seeks to cast the light of a priceless heritage on the needs of the present moment, and so to shape the future. Reformed confessions, in particular, when necessary even reform the tradition itself in the light of the Word of God. From the first, the Reformed churches have insisted that the renewal of the church must become visible in the transformation of human lives and societies. Hence "A Brief Statement of Faith" lifts up concerns that call most urgently for the church's attention in our time. The church is not a refuge from the world; an elect people is chosen for the blessing of the nations. A sound confession, therefore, proves itself as it nurtures commitment to the church's mission, and as the confessing church itself becomes the body by which Christ continues the blessing of his earthly ministry.

(This preface does not have confessional authority, but is included as an aid to interpret the "Brief Statement of Faith.")

Rotational Sunday School

Exploring God's World

Hus Church Sunday School is from 10:45 am - 11:30 am each Sunday

Kids ages 3-5th grade will meet in the Scripture Safari Room.
From there, we'll direct the kids to their station for the day.

In May, the Rotational Sunday School will start a new lesson about Paul on the road to Damascus: The REAL "Extreme Makeover" Our key verse is 2 Corinthians 5:17 "Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; they old has gone, the new has come!" The story comes from Acts 9: 1-19.

Last spring we studied the story of Pentecost, another story from the book of Acts. The Holy Spirit came to the disciples and other followers of Jesus who were gathered together after his death and resurrection. The Holy Spirit enabled them to then take the Good News about Jesus to the ends of the earth. But the same people who killed Jesus were still unhappy about these people who they felt were not following the Law of Moses. So the new Christians were persecuted. Saul of Tarsus was one of the zealous Pharisees persecuting followers of Jesus. One day on the road to Damascus where he was going to arrest more believers, Saul met Christ in the form of a blinding light. Saul was transformed by that encounter and became one of the greatest Christian missionaries.

The story of Saul's amazing conversion gives us hope for our own transformation. If God can change the heart of someone like Saul, God can change anyone! The focus for this rotation will be the dramatic change and turn around in Saul's life on the road to Damascus. We all have things in our lives which we would like to change. God wants all of us to recognize our need for Jesus Christ's love and forgiveness in our lives. Sometimes this conversion can be a sudden, dramatic event as it was for Saul. Sometimes it can be a slow, growing awareness of the presence of the Holy Spirit in our lives. The type of conversion is not the important thing. Recognizing God's presence and deciding to live according to God's will is what is important. Following God's will requires that we remain willing to change with God's help.

2 TIMOTHY 1:5 (NIV)

Answer: "I have been reminded of your sincere faith, which first lived in your grandmother Lois and in your mother Eunice and, I am persuaded, now lives in you also."

Thanks FOR YOUR EXAMPLE

Mother's Day is a great opportunity to thank your mother, grandmother or any other woman who has been a wonderful example in your life. Make and give this craft to show how much you appreciate these special women.

What you need:

- An empty, glass, wide-mouthed jar (no lid needed)
- Acrylic craft paints (several different spring colors)
- Votive candle (optional)
- Flowers (optional)
- Small candies (optional)

What you do:

1. Make sure your glass jar is clean and dry.
2. Dip your pointer finger into one of the paint colors.
3. Using your finger as a stamp, make about five prints in a circle on the outside of your jar. These will be your flower petals. (Hint: Hold your jar by placing your hand inside it. Then you can turn the jar easily without messing up the wet paint.)
4. Dip your finger into another color and make a fingerprint in the center of your petals.
5. Make as many flowers as you want, using different fingers or your thumb to make different-sized petals.
6. Present this beautiful gift to a special woman this Mother's Day. There are many ways to use it:
 - Place a votive candle inside to make a candleholder.
 - Fill it with water and place flowers inside to make a vase.
 - Fill it with small candies to make a candy jar.
